Welcome to Cannes, France

The Definitive Riviera Resort

It's no wonder Cannes is most famous as a favorite haunt of celebrities and commoners alike. What began as a small, simple fishing town has evolved into the crown jewel of the French Riviera.

During the 18th and 19th centuries, the Riviera's resort culture developed when the Russian and English aristocracy came to the shores to cure their winter ailments in the sun and surf. Carriage-riding and casino-hopping soon drew a steady stream of the rich and famous who favored these types of seaside sports.

The resort of Cannes was made fashionable in 1836 when Lord Brogham, of horse and carriage fame, decided to stay for the summer season. Lord Brogham's aristocratic friends came to visit and the rest, as they say, is history.

On foot from the old town, following the gently sloping lanes intersected by picturesque stairways, is the soul of Cannes. Be sure to explore the Forville market and its ring of food shops, allowing you to discover one of the aspects of a town eternally famous for its shopping.

Here's your chance to find out how Cannes lives up to its motto, "Life is a festival."

While you will find many great experiences ashore, please remain vigilant about your personal safety and the safety of your belongings. As in any large urban tourist destination, you'll want to take some basic precautions to make the most of your time ashore.

- Be aware of your surroundings at all times. Avoid short cuts, narrow alleys and poorly lit streets.
- Avoid wandering from the main shopping and tourist areas into unfamiliar territory. If venturing out independently, have a plan, use only licensed taxi operators.
- Identity/Credit Card theft can occur anywhere. Please remain vigilant in monitoring the safe keeping of your personal information.
- Leave valuables in your room safe and avoid carrying large amounts of cash. Exercise caution when using ATMs. Cameras and handbags should be carried close to your body or concealed out of sight.
- Leave air transportation tickets and other travel documents in your room safe. When going ashore, each adult is required to carry a Driver's license, passport or other government-issued photo ID. Note: Some ports may require guests to carry passports ashore.
